

Science Test Chapter 1 Review

Know how to create a graph including title, labeling each axis, and plotting data accurately. Almost half of the points are on graphing.

It is life science, so explain what that means. Know the 15 vocabulary words, especially in section two that deal with the scientific method. Also know the steps used in the scientific method.

Be able to give examples using metric measurements. Be able to match examples to models, theories, and laws.